News This Week

It has been all hands on deck this week supporting the Year 6's for their SATs. We began each day with breakfast together and then off they went! We should all be proud of them and the staff who have worked with the children. I certainly am! I can't believe we have one more week to go before half term ... it's crazy how time flies. We're already planning for next half term and beyond ... and I'm making lots and lots of lists! Big news is that the Summer fair is coming soon and we have lots planned. Keep Saturday 13th June free! Robin

Summer Fair.....mega-slide, assault course, aero-plane ride, gladiator duel, face-painting, Primrose Hill's Got Talent, BBQ, bungee run, trampolines, chair-o-planes, dumper truck!

Lost Property

It is surprising how much lost property builds up! How can children go home missing a shoe?! We keep our lost property under the arches so please take some time to have a look out for anything you may be missing.

Drink more water / Eat more fruit

LATIN CLUB CORNER

Vox populi, sometimes shortened to "vox pop", is a Latin phrase meaning "The voice of the people" and we now know how people voted in the General Election last week. There is an official political party called Vox Pop who believe we should be voting electronically and dispensing altogether with elected Members of Parliament!

RR and their parents and carers have been enthusiastically participating in their Primrose Literacy sessions, learning new ways of bringing stories to life with their children. A HUGE thank you to the all the adults who came along. We had 26 last week and 27 this week! Next week is the first RJ session so we look forward to welcoming as many parents and carers to that session as possible. That would be brill!

See you there! Richard & Jill
