This Week News

My first Summer fair at Primrose Hill was superb and tremendously well supported by the school community and raised £5,548.86. Everyone seemed to have fun there was certainly lots of merriment and enjoyment on view. The rain held off too. A big thank you to Tania, the Wilkinson Family and all the other volunteers and helpers who gave their time to make the day so special. A massive amount of work goes into making this event a success so big pats on the back all round. Our Y1's & some Y2's have been doing their Phonics Check this week and we are very pleased with their hard work. Well done all. Robin

YEAR 6 TRANSITION

As Year 6 are approaching their final weeks at Primrose Hill we have been discussing the important transition to Secondary. Our children have places at a range of schools and Sarah, Jo and Emma have been having meetings with the schools to support the children in their move. Some of the secondary schools have also been in to talk to the children, give them key information and answer questions that the children may have about their next exciting chapter.

At the Junior Citizens Programme last week the children took part in workshops which gave them a huge amount of information. There were professionals to talk about a wide range of citizenship aspects including - London Transport, fire safety, First Aid, Victim support, water safety, Antisocial behaviour, bullying and trading standards. The children were praised for their behaviour and independence in moving between the workshops. Every group was awarded 10/10. We are very proud of them.

Year 2 seaside trip

This week our Year 2 children took a coach trip to Walton on the Naze on the east coast. Lots of parents accompanied them and a lovely day was had by all—lots of sunshine, empty beaches and fun. Just look at them all enjoying themselves.

Last week EYFS went to the City Farm

The children and family members who went on this trip behaved like super-stars, commented Richard McLelland on the EYFS visit to Kentish Town City Farm.

Persuasive Writing

Year 5 have recently been writing persuasive texts and the children have produced some fine work. Here is one example from Mali in 5A -

"Dear Parents,

Your children could have an amazing future as long as they read books! And this doesn't just benefit your child, it benefits your relationship with your child. If your child just puts in 100% effort their vocabulary will improve, also their knowledge and confidence will improve heavily. The time you commit with your child could help you bond easier and it won't be an awkward relationship. If they read books their imagination will be amazing. And most certainly will help them reach their dreams if they just put in ten minutes a day of reading they might one day become a famous ... "
