From our Head Teacher — It was wonderful to have such a good turnout for parent consultations. The feedback from parents was great and the teachers report that there was lots of good dialogue about your children's learning, that you liked the learning environment and were pleased with the children's books. Mitch, Katie and Alice had a stream of parents coming and going to see them in the Community Room and Emma had lots of parents coming to talk to her in her SENDCo role. This partnership between home and school is really valuable and I am glad the new system worked well. We've evaluated the process too and know how we can make it even smoother next time.

Our Library is to have a facelift!

If you have any school library books at home, please return them to school by next Friday, 4th December. This is an urgent request before our real work begins.

Our Library will be redecorated, furniture and books will be updated. We want the Library to be welcoming and stimulating—an area where children want to read and explore new authors and topics.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY

The fun days in school to support Children in Need and World Diabetes Day raised £390.00 Our children learned about disadvantaged children and the real problems associated with diabetes. Then, Make a Noise about Bullying saw performances by the children and workshops. We decided to make promises to stand up to bullies and always to report bullying to an adult. Wristband sales raised £88.00 for our Inclusion resources.

The Cast

Albanian Club

The Albanian Club have been very busy writing letters to Rita Ora. We hope she will get these letters and come and visit us! A big thank you to the staff who are running the club. The children love attending. Don't forget our other clubs before and after school—ask Mitch, Katie or Alice for details.

Cecil Sharpe House Concerts

I write to you to remind you about this year's concerts at Cecil Sharp House and our upcoming CD 'Primrose Hill School Sings!'

Reception & KS1

This concert will take place on Tuesday 15th December at 2:30. Each family is allocated two tickets.

KS2

This concert will take place on Thursday 10th December at 2:30. Again, each family is allocated two tickets.

This year we are asking for a voluntary contribution of £3 per ticket. This will go towards the cost of the venue and will pay for a CD that your child will bring home in their book bag. You will be able to take your child home after the performance and if you are not able to attend then your child will be back at school for 15:30 to be collected as normal.

Please see the office if you would like tickets for either concert. Katie

Brilliant Basketballers

Our team competed against 15 teams in the CSSA one-day basketball event recently, finishing in first position after the group stages. The boys finally finished in 5th place and the girls' team were runners-up overall.

A wonderful achievement!

Book Review by Rita Brassington

When I was quite a young child my father would read me Aesop's Fables - The Lion and the Mouse, The Tortoise and the Hare and other animal stories. He explained to me that these stories all had a moral - a lesson to be learned.

In The Tortoise and the Hare, the hare rests because he believes he is fast and will win any race, whilst the tortoise keeps walking, slowly and steadily, and he wins the race. The moral there that hard, steady work does achieve.

I liked the story of the Fox and the Crow. A fox saw a crow fly off with a piece of cheese in its beak. It settled on the branch of a tree. A passing fox looked up and thought, that cheese is mine. I laughed to think that even a sly fox could cheat a crow who could fly away at any time. But the Fox called to the Crow, complimenting her on her glossy coat and bright eyes. He asked her to sing to him, as he was sure her voice would be as beautiful as she. The Crow looked down at the Fox and began to sing - well, 'Caw, Caw.' Of course the cheese fell from her mouth on to the ground and was immediately picked up by the Fox. He looked up at the Crow and said he would give her some advice - 'Do not trust flatterers!' My father would pat me on the head and say, 'Remember that, my girl.'

Fly a kite on Primrose Hill or Hampstead Heath

Visit one of the many museums or galleries in Camden

Swim in the new outdoor pool at Kings Cross

Attendance congratulations to 4D with 98% .

The Punctuality award goes to 2R with only 1 late this week. Well done—everyone !!

The Sensory Room

This week saw the installation of our Sensory Room. It can be a calming, relaxing environment or a highly stimulating interactive space. It is simply a fascinating and educational area which we hope all our children will enjoy.
