The sun is shining and Spring is coming! We have been busy finishing our Pupil Progress Reviews this week. This comes before our Parent Consultations so the teachers can discuss where the children are in their learning. It has been very positive seeing the progress in books and discussing individuals as a group. Lots of information regarding Nursery funding... please see below. Remember school is closed on Wednesday next week for Nursery and Reception and from 1pm for Years 1 to 6.

Have a lovely weekend. Robin.

2 Year Old Nursery News

We are getting closer and closer to opening, and although there is still lots to do with the site, the team are working super hard to complete the project. We are having an open day for our new children on Thursday 30th March and our grand opening will be Thursday 20th April. Richard, Liz T, Roxan and Chin-Chu have been spending the £££££ on beautiful things for our 'going to be magnificent' provision. We can't wait to welcome the tadpoles.

This week, Year 5 visited the Sir John Soane's Museum as part of their Georgian topic. The children have been finding ancient Greek and Roman influences in local architecture and visited the museum to find out more about the eccentric architect's life for our biography writing. The children even visited the tomb which Sir John Soane designed for his wife at St Pancras Old Church.

Spring Slam Final

Laura is taking 4 representatives to the Spring Slam Final next Friday. All the children worked SO hard on this competition - so well done to everyone - but unfortunately we can only take 1 representative per year group.

The final will consist of lots of fun times table challenges throughout the morning and will culminate in a Camden winner for each year group - good luck to our participants!

Chickens

It wasn't only the Beetles and Grasshoppers that were lucky enough to go to The Tower of London this week, we were invited by Royal appointment to go and sing for Her Majesty's ravens. The ravens hold a concert every year hosted by the Queen and Prince Philip and we were the chosen act. The Primrose songbirds put The White Tower on the map!

Kylie sang "I should be so lucky" Cyndi "True Colours" and Madonna "material girl". We finished with Diamonds are a girl's best friend in honour of the crown jewels. The ravens and the Yeoman Warders gave us a standing and flapping ovation, we brought the house down.

Afterwards we met Her Majesty's who said "One thought you did a very good job, on behalf of the nation One thanks you".

We will probably get a knighthood after that so watch this space!!!!

We are looking at Glastonbury but that has yet to be confirmed. To be honest we are not a big fan of mud, it gets caught up in our feathered feet, maybe Ilijana (our stylist) can source some wellies, complete with diamantes obviously. Till then that booking is on hold.

After all that eggcitement you might think life in the coop is dull, but you would be wrong. We are still rehearsing for the concert after the sponsored bounce on Tuesday 28th March. That very special person is going to be so surprised when we sing to HIM. Our beaks are still sealed but keep guessing.

Right straw to flatten and eggs to lay. See you next week

Kylie, Cyndi and Madonna.
