A really lovely and productive week. I started Monday by looking through all of Y6's writing to agree teacher assessment judgements as part of their SATS. I was really impressed, not only by Marianne and Nabila's organisation and evident excellent teaching, but also in the huge progress all the children have made since September. The quality of work was wonderful. Then on Wednesday, we had an external moderation of our Y2 standards. The team agreed with all of our judgements and were very complementary about us as a school – a big well done to Mireille for leading this, alongside Jacob and Pippa with help from Marianne, Mary, Emma and Liz. Next week our Y6's are off on their hollibobs! Robin

IMPORTANT

While we are very proud of our playground facilities and love to see the children use them when supervised by their parents, can we remind all parents and carers that they need to leave the playground by 3.45 when the gates close. This space is timetabled for use by our after school provision from this time. Thank you for your understanding.

Our Y6's will be visiting PGL Osmington Bay all next week. Marianne, Nabila, Sandra, Sabena, Danielle, Jordan, Tiss and Mireille will be accompanying them. Robin will also visit for a couple of days mid week. This experience is not only good for the Y6's as a reward for their hard work, but also gives Y5 a chance to practice being Y6's!

Chickens

Happy Friday from your celebrity hens.

It has been such a busy week for us, Taylor Swift, who is an actual swift, is playing at Eggby Arena on Saturday, and guess who her backing singers are....Yup Wayne and his wagtails, can you believe it? We couldn't either, there are no singers finer than us! Instead we have offered our services to the band. Tom has been teaching us how to play the harmonica and glockenspiel all week.

We can even play look what you made me do on the kazoo. Add the neon yellow t-shirts designed by Ilirjana and made by sewing club and if that doesn't get us on stage, nothing will!!

We will keep you posted.

See you next week! Madonna and Cyndi
